WAKO IF WOMEN COMMITTEE CAMPAIGN

Today, even the most powerful people in our society are at the mercy of a virus that knows no rank and no title. On these extraordinary times, women are disproportionately affected with Covid and they have increased demands in all fields in life. They are taking care of security for the family, taking care of the economy for life, do coaching in the kickboxing clubs, taking care of the club members, herself, families at home. Their efforts must not be overlooked. WAKO celebrates our female coaches as front liners and real-life heroes. We salute them for continuously creative work in the clubs, programming and keeping athletes motivated, for their dedication to learning and contribution. The sport of kickboxing and our organization stands on their shoulders. Read the story of Sharon Gill, kickboxing coach, the story of dozens more women in sport around the world, who deserve support. She is setting a standard and an example that we all should admire! She is a woman who is changing the face of the kickboxing sport. Because #HerWinOurWin.

ZERO WAKO TOLERANCE FOR BULLYING

WAKO and our sport is built on friendship, care, respect, resilience, discipline and fair play in sport and in our civilian life. Our sport and our WAKO culture are unique and based on the people inside it, those who practice it, those who develop it and those who lead it. That's why we all WAKO people have a huge responsibility to influence a fragile world and to stand up and say stop.

My clear standpoint is that Kickboxing is a great preventive tool and WAKO have absolutely no tolerance for physical and mental bullying. We simply take care of each other and build each other. We are all resources to make it happen.

NEW WAKO RULES - WHAT'S NEW

This is a new section in the WAKO Newsletter.

As you know, the WAKO Board has accepted the new WAKO rules and they have been published on the official website. They take effect on January 1st 2021. There is a lot of news, and in this column, we will present you the news and give you a comment and explanations.

COACHES

Introduction and explanation

In the new WAKO rules, special attention is given to coaches. Coaches are a very important part of the WAKO system of training and competition in kickboxing and especially in the development of kickboxing as a sport.

These new WAKO Rules regulate their education, participation on competitions, accreditation, registration, licencing, conduct during fight, possibilities of protests and possible penalties.

It is especially emphasized that it is regulated that the behaviour of coaches must be dignified and calm. The coach has the right to complain twice about ONLY technical mistake during the fight, but he has no right to complain about the referee's decisions.

Eventual penalties for coaches are separate from penalties for kickboxers. A coach may be disqualified from a fight, that day, or from the entire competition. If he is disqualified for the whole day or from the whole tournament, then the case will be handed over to the Disciplinary Commission for further decision.

What is important to note - the rules equalize the behaviour of the coach on the tatami and in the ring.

In the future, coaches and Coach committee will play a key role in creating and improving the WAKO Rules.

As part of the Scottish Governing Body of Sport (SGB) guidance every club and community organisation must have an appointed Covid Officer. The Covid Officer's role is to oversee public health and safety measures to ensure that clubs operate in a safe manner in accordance with Scottish Government and relevant governing body guidelines. A covid officer e-learning module has been designed by sportscotland to provide COVID Officers with key information and guidance to support clubs and organisations in the safe delivery of sport and physical activity as Scotland moves out of COVID-19 lockdown. Within the WAKO GB Return to Kickboxing guidance document (which can be found on wakogb.com safeguarding page) the role of "covid officer" is carried out by a clubs health & safety officer. The wako document provides sport specific guidance along with a template risk assessment and operational plan designed to help clubs operate in a covid secure manner. It is highly recommended that all covid officers, coaches and club owners take advantage of Sport Scotlands free online course. Gordon Mitchell - WAKO GB Lead Safeguarding Officer

LOCAL COVID ALERT LEVELS - IMPACT ON KICKBOXING CLASSES (ENGLAND ONLY) Please note that in all three tiers of the current England Local COVID Alert levels, kickboxing may continue to operate as an organised sport/exercise class. This is only permitted as our classes currently operate under covid secure guidance which ensures all athletes are socially distanced on the mats as individuals. At all three levels there is currently no contact i.e. no pad work or sparring. There has been some confusion due to the "high" and "very high" tier meeting with family and friends guidance, where it references exceptions for people from different households gathering in groups that are larger than 6. The guidance defines the following sports related exception: "For indoor organised sport for disabled people, sport for educational purposes and supervised sport and physical activity for under-18s" Some venues/organisations are interpreting this to mean sporting activities for over 18's cannot operate. This is not the case and is made clear further down in the guidance under the section 'Sport and Physical Activity' which states: "Organised sport, exercise classes and other activity groups are only permitted indoors if it is possible for people to avoid mixing with people they do not live with (or share a support bubble with). Where it is likely that households (or support bubbles) will mix, these activities must not go ahead. Social interaction before and after any sport or exercise should be limited to people from the same household or support bubble. There are exceptions for disability sport, sport for educational purposes and supervised sport and physical activity for under-18s, which can take place in any number." As a sport we socially distance at all alert levels and so the rule of 6 is not relevant in a kickboxing context. The Rule of Six and their exemptions apply to those sports that have been through the "Return to recreational team sport framework" and approved by DCMS and Public Health England. Sports that are approved e.g. football, basketball do not have to maintain social distancing during "play", however for adults the introduction of the new 3 tier local alert level has meant the rule of six applying to team sports indoors. Under 18s, disabled athletes and schools however are exempt and therefore can continue with full size games indoors. We are of course trying to get our return to kickboxing framework approved by DCMS and so we are hoping that at some point in the near future we will be able to operate at close quarters allowing for the phased reintroduction of partnered training and sparring. However for the moment we are non-contact and socially distanced and so not impacted by movement between tier levels. One caveat to this last statement. It is only under the BASELINE Tier 3 / Very High alert level, that kickboxing classes may operate. In each Tier 3 region, additional restrictions may be added by local government and so clubs must check the detailed guidance for their region when moving into Tier 3. Currently only South Yorkshire has additional restrictions that may impact sports clubs and gyms.

GREAT BRITAIN

Prime Minister Boris Johnson on October 31st announced a National Lockdown for England. The stay at home instruction will be for a period of one month and is being implemented due to increasing demands on NHS resources and the worrying projection that the NHS will be overrun by December if we do nothing. Lockdown Period: Start Date: Thursday 5th November End Date: Wednesday 2nd December The public is now being asked to stay at home except for the following reasons: - Work (if you cannot work from home) - Education (schools, college and uni) - Unlimited Outdoor Exercise - Medical Reasons e.g. going to Doctors - Food Shopping - Support Care - Recreation with 1 other person outside Non-essential shops, hospitality, entertainment and leisure services must close. Schools, Colleges and Universities will remain open. Furlough has been extended through November. This announcement means that kickboxing clubs will be required to shut down from this coming Thursday, 5th October, until Wednesday 2nd December. Due to the limit on meeting outside we cannot run exercise sessions outdoors either. Coaches will be able to provide 1-1 coaching outdoors but must adhere to social distancing. This is going to be a very difficult time for everyone. The importance of sports to physical and mental health is well known and so we are extremely disappointed with this decision. However, self-discipline, perseverance and resilience are attributes we pride ourselves on having as Martial Artists. Four weeks is a short time in our martial arts journey and we should look at this as yet another challenge that we will face head on and overcome. October Report 2020

WAKO India participated in UTS Virtual Youth Festival 2020, an opportunity for young athletes from all over the world to engage in friendly sport competitions. It was a proud moment for Team India who won 15 medals in this Tournament in different categories and stood at the 3rd position in the final tally with 4 Gold, 5 Silver and 6 Bronze. This unique Virtual Youth Festival has brought Olympic and non-Olympic sports together and we hope to gain more and more experience through event like these.

The ongoing "Online WAKO India Kickboxing Training / Education Pathway Program" have completed 5 months now and it is still running successfully. This has been a great achievement for the federation focusing on making, nurturing and upgrading not only the seniors but also the new talent across the country. The pathway has helped all the Athletes/Coaches/Officials to cope up with the daily fitness routine in such a pandemic situation. WAKO India is continuously monitoring the growth and confidence in all the participants since it provides a platform and gives equal opportunity to everyone to train the other members of the group also. The WAKO India coaches & officials like Mr. Kartik Dakua, Dr. Sanjay Yadav, Mr. Nilesh Shelar, Mr. Anil Sharma, Mr. Suryapratap Mundapat, Mr. Krushna Dakua, Ms. Seema Saini has been the pillars in consistently providing and contributing in upgrading the education pathway. It has been observed that the level of interest has increased amongst the members and so is the participation level. WAKO India President Mr. Santosh K Agrawal has sincerely thanked the members of WAKO India for maintaining that level of interest amongst the participants. He has also mentioned that the Teamwork is the key to success in every organization and every hand has a unique input. "Only those who will risk going too far can possibly find out how far they can go."

Apart from this, our president along with the Team Sportdata attended a zoom meet with the representative of Rsportz; Mr. Tomas and Mr. Robin Kent on "How to implement and execute the New System" in our Federation. This is an initiative taken by WAKO (IF) for federations worldwide in order to get a database of all the members across the world and engaging them accordingly. October was concluded as another amazing month for the group with some extra ordinary effort in bringing the standard of the game up and redefining Kickboxing sport in India. WAKO India President Mr. Agrawal sincerely thanked the WAKO (IF) in motivating and pushing Team India at every occasion.

Jesús Eguía was reelected for four years as president of the Spanish Federation of Kickboxing and Muaythai. His possible rivals did not get sufficient guarantees and he was proclaimed president by the Assembly. Jesús Eguía took office in November 2017, and together with his team they have managed to increase the licenses from 1,200 to 14,000, obtaining good results in the European and World Championships in both modalities. In the economic aspect, the federation has been cleaned up, and Eguía has also achieved some positions in the European and world federations with which to fight to take Spanish kickboxing and muaythai to the top. His goal for the next four years is to create a League for Spanish wrestlers and promote sport for people with physical or mental disabilities. SLOVAKIA

Slovak federation organized Slovak national championships and Academic Kickboxing Championships in Lučenec, 25.-26.9.2020, at the end of September, before our Slovak government started lock down in Slovakia. Together they did it! Even in this difficult situation, federation successfully arranged national tournament, together in cooperation with Slovak Association of University Sports and the Slavia Physical Education Unit, of the Technical University of Košice, held the Academic Kickboxing Championships in the same time.

Concerns about low participation of fighters and club due to Covid situation did not materialize, and they had amazing numbers of 218 competitors competed with 468 starts.

Before officially started competition, participants sent a greeting to Rastislav Babinčák (WAKO International referee) from a distance. Rastislav is a long-time representative, coach, referee and currently also the chairman of the disciplinary commission in our Slovak kickboxing Union, who is recovering from a stroke and since he could not be on tournament, the symbolic applause went to him to the hospital.

Competition was running in one day, and in addition to experienced WAKO representatives and medalists from the WAKO World Championships and European Championships, many new faces also took part in the competitions, "bringing new blood" to the ring and on the tatami.

Federation finally finished marathon of fights around 8PM, without any hard injuries. The tournament was strictly held by our government regulations concerning measures related to COVID-19.

After 30th of September Slovak government ordered a state of emergency, and from that time, clubs, sports indoor areas are closed. Clubs still can't train fighters or organize any sport event / tournament. This information is still valid, and new order will come after 20th of November 2020. Due to statistic, we expect that clubs will be open for training at first after Christmas.
