30 NOVEMBER-08 DECEMBER 2013

Dear all WAKO Kickboxing Friends,

It is a pleasure for me to invite you all again to Turkey. After the stunning success we had last year in Ankara we understand that this is actually the level of the promotion in Turkey . Under the leadership of President Salim Kayici the Turkey federation has grown to be one of our biggest, most professional and most dedicated federations in WAKO worldwide. This is of course due to hard and precise work over many years from many people. Today Kickboxing has an outstanding position in The Turkish sportsworld. It is therefore with great honor to be in Turkey to celebrate our sport once again, now as a World Championship.

Antalya is a very beautiful and famous resort for tourists and it is a pleasure for WAKO and its members to be present in this beautiful area of Turkey . This is a part of our WAKO plan, to not only be in big cities but to experience countries, landscape, surroundings and to witness their culture. It should be mentioned that next year the Sportaccord Convention will be in Belek, close to Antalya . Let us together enjoy the hospitality of the great Turkish people and let us show Turkey the best of the best of the world of Kickboxing. Mr. Kayici will be responsible for the promotion and our proud athletes will be responsible for the action.

In the spirit of Mr. Ennio Falsoni, I welcome you to fantastic Antalya , Turkey for the World Championship in Full-Contact, Point Fighting, Light-Contact, Kick-Light and Musical Forms.

Antalya (population 2 million), biggest touristic center of the Turkish Mediterranean Coast, is a sprawling modern city with a small, charming historic center, a good archeology museum, long sunny beaches to east and west, the Turquoise Coast's busiest airport, good hotels, lots to see and do, and dramatic sea and mountain views (map).

The historic center, called Kaleiçi (Kah-leh-ee-chee, Old Antalya) surrounds the Roman harbor. Many buildings here date from Ottoman times, a few from Roman times, and some have been restored as houses, boutique hotels, pensions and restaurants.

Antalya's prime beach is Konyaaltı Plajı, a long swath of rough sand and pebbles running west for several kilometers.

The sand is somewhat softer along Lara Plajı to the east. Other beaches are farther afield at Side and Alanya to the east, or Kemer, Phaselis and Olimpos to the south.

Visit Antalya for Kaleiçi, the museum and beaches, and because it's the transportation hub of the region with a big, modern airport 10 km (6 miles) east of the city center, and a big, modern bus terminal (Otogar) 4 km (2.5 miles) north. Here's more on how to get to Antalya, and how to get around.

Antalya is also a good base for day-trips to nearby archeological sites such as Aspendos, Olimpos, Perge, Phaselis, Selge, Side and Termessos (map), and even river rafting in Köprülü Kanyon National Park.

TRANSPORTATION:

Antalya Airport (IATA:AYT, ICAO: LTAI) is in 13 km (8.1 mi) northeast of the city center of Antalya, Turkey. The airport is operated in Turkey's primary holiday destination located on the country's Mediterranean coast. The airport was built to accommodate the millions of passengers who come to Turkey's Mediterranean beaches in summer. It handled 25 million passengers in 2011, more than 20 million of which were international passengers. The airport has two international terminals and one domestic terminal. Based on the projection from data from peak months (e.g. August 2009), it currently has an estimated capacity of accommodating up to 35 million passengers/year, theoretically. The opening of Alanya Gazipaşa Airport between Anamur and Alanya, which is about 100 km (62 mi) to the east of AYT, will help ease the airport's traffic.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION:

Antalya offers a variety of public transportation, such as public buses, taxi cabs, trams, mini-buses and dolmus. When you arrive to Antalya airport Turkish Kickboxing Federation will welcome you and we will arrange bus to go from airport to the hotel. For further information check transport page. In Antalya, the public bus system is the best method of getting to most areas of Antalya. It is not necessary to rent a car or taxi. The public transportation options in Antalya are efficient, inexpensive and convenient so tourists are able to use them easily to get to the most major destinations and attractions. The buses leave at the bus station in the center of Antalya. Not only for the purpose of conveniently getting around Antalya but also for the experience of local travel, the dolmus is a perfectly legitimate and efficient mode of transportation and visitors are encouraged to try it. The Dolmus drivers are really very helpful to the lost tourists. The strange thing about the dolmus is the payment. Money will be passed down the vehicle from the back to the driver and then change will be passed back. Payment is normally made soon after boarding the dolmus. The Dolmus currently costs 1.70 Turkish Lira for inner city journeys and little bit more for out of town villages. You can find the Dolmus on the street whenever you need one and if you want to get off just say it to the driver. It is very cheap and it is a nice way to taste a little of the Turkish atmosphere. Tramway goes to a limited number of locations in Antalya. It is useful for tourists because it does hit many major attractions, such as the Antalya Museum. It is a single line with 2 different trams, one running in each direction. They leave every half hour and they are inexpensive and convenient for certain destinations. Tramway operates between Museum (Antalya Museum) and Zerdalilik directions. Stops: Museum (Konyaalti beach, Sheraton, Falez hotels, Ataturk park, Glass pyramid), Barbaros, Meslek lisesi, Selekler( Selekler shopping center ), Kalekapisi ( Main gate of Oldcity-citadel ), Uckapilar ( Hadrian gate-and another gate to Old city-citadel ), Belediye ( Karaalioglu park and another way to Old city-Hidirlik tower ), Isiklar, Cender ( Cender & Talya hotels ), Zerdalilik. Working hours: between 7.00am-21.00pm

ANTALYA / TÜRKİYE

Ataturk once described Antalya as “the most beautiful place on earth“.

While that might be a bit of biased hyperbole, there is no doubt that Antalya has some stunning views. The marina surrounded by dramatic cliffs and ancient city walls, the beach with the Taurus Mountains in the background, and the charming old city of Kaleici all make Antalya a photographer’s dream.

Karaalioglu Park and the Taurus Mountains

If you’re interested in the Ancient cultures of Greece and Rome, you must visit Antalya’s Archeological Museum, where the artifacts from ancient cities of the region are displayed.

The most beautiful part of Antalya is Kaleici’s harbor, and the best way to spend a day is to take a boat trip from here. You’ll get to see Antalya’s coastline, swim in pristine coves, and eat freshly caught and grilled fish.

On a boatride from Kaleici

Hadrians Gate

The most interesting place to explore is the old city, Kaleici. It is surrounded by ancient stone walls, including a Clock Tower and a Roman arch known as Hadrian’s Gate.

You’re guaranteed to get lost in the winding cobblestone streets, but don’t worry, that’s part of the fun, and the locals are used to giving directions.

The Kaleici area is the only part of town where you’ll see Ottoman architecture, as both Lara and Konyaalti are full of modern concrete apartment buildings. If you’re on a budget, you’ll find most basic Turkish restaurants have similar menus and prices. Your choices are meatballs, doner, chicken shish and lamb shish. The same choices are offered in most places inside Kaleici, though the prices are a bit higher.

For lunch you can go to an Ev Yemekleri restaurant (home cooking place) and choose four courses from the buffet for around 5 Lira ( 3 dollars). This usually includes soup, salad, a casserole of meat, chicken or vegetables, and rice pilav or pasta.

For traditional Turkish food that's a cut above, try Guneyliler. They will start you off with mezes (appetizers) and fresh baked bread before you even order anything. My favorite meal is to split a kıymalı pide (Turkish pizza with chopped meat) and then order Ali Nazik, a dish made with marinated lamb on a bed of mashed eggplant and topped with a yoghurt sauce.

For grilled meats the place to go is 7 Mehmet. They also have a good selection of mezes as well as excellent service and elegant surroundings. You might want to wear your good jeans for this one.

There are lots of good places for fish, including Lara Balik Evi, Alara (which has an incredible view), and the establishments at the old harbor.

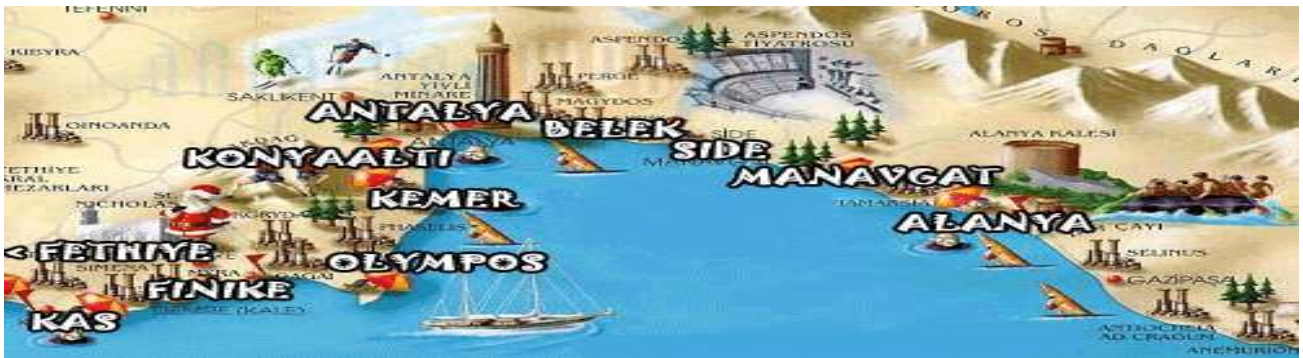

Kaleici is full of bars, or Meyhane (bars serving meze and light meals). In season, the beachfront restaurants are also active night spots. You'll hear a mixture of Turkish and American music at most places. Local favorites are Ayyas, Dolma and Shaker

Kaleici's marina, a great place to eat fish
