ADDRESS: JUNÁČKA 6, BRATISLAVA, SLOVAKIA

HOW TO REACH BRATISLAVA

You can arrive to Bratislava by plane, train, bus, car or by boat!

BY PLANE

BRATISLAVA AIRPORT (BTS)- There are direct flights to a number of destinations in Europe and a number of airlines operate their direct routes to Bratislava – RYANAIR, Pobeda, flydubai, Czech Airlines, Wizz Air,...Bratislava airport can be reached from the city centre in 15–20 minutes.

VIENNA-SCHWECHAT (VIE) AIRPORT- The airport at Vienna-Schwechat is only 40 kilometers west of Bratislava and Slovaks mainly use it for long-haul flights. It is one of the main gateways to Slovakia.

BY TRAIN

Bratislava connects to the main lines from Prague, Budapest, Vienna and various regions in Slovakia. Bratislava has two railway stations – the Main Station and Petržalka. The Main Station is well connected to the rest of the city via trams, buses or trolleybuses and you can get to the Old Town on foot in only 15 minutes.

BY BUS

Bratislava is also conveniently connected with many European cities via a network of bus lines. It has frequent service to the surrounding areas and also to other regions in Slovakia.

BY CAR

Bratislava is situated at the intersection of several important motorways. The distance to Prague is 330 km, Budapest 200 km and Vienna 65 km. If you are bringing your own car, you need to display a valid motorway tax sticker (known as 'dialnicna znamka'), available at borders or petrol stations. The minimum validity period is ten days (costs around EUR 10).

SPORT HALL HANT ARENA

ARENA, where will be WAKO championships held:

The HANT arena is well known for the inhabitants of Bratislava, the Pasienky sports hall is located on the current junction of the Trnava Route and Bajkalská Street since 1960. During its history it has been and continues to be the scene of many sporting and cultural events. There are regularly played matches of the domestic basketball and handball club Inter, as well as many sports and cultural events.

A sports hall with a capacity of 4,200 people is not only an integral part of Bratislava but also a sports stall that requires constant care. In the course of 2015, the management of the Association of Sports Clubs of Inter Bratislava started to modernize the interior spaces. Visitors to the hall currently have 3414 separate seats in perspective, including 255 seats in the VIP zone. Increased comfort for viewers is also provided by an expanded refreshment capacity or a sports café linked to newly renovated VIP rooms.

HANT arena hosted WAKO World kickboxing juniors and cadets championships in 2012 with more than 2000 participants.

12 TOP POINTS OF INTEREST AND PLACES TO VISIT

Bratislava Castle

The castle, on a hill above the old town, dominates the city of Bratislava. It features in the first written reference to the city, which appears in the Annals of Salzburg of 907, in association with a battle between Bavarians and Hungarians. The castle hill was populated as early as the late Stone Age...

In 2008, a comprehensive restoration project was launched which is expected to take five years. As a result, the interior is currently closed to visitors, but the exterior fortifications and their views over the Danube can still be accessed

UFO Observation Deck

For any visitor to Bratislava, the UFO Observation Deck is one of the highlights. This open-deck observation tower – shaped like a UFO, hence its name – stands tall at 95 meters above ground level. In a city full of traditional architecture, the saucer-like UFO Observation Deck is a striking addition which can be spotted easily from a distance.

Devin Castle

A national cultural monument, is located at the foot of a cliff above the confluence of the Danube and Morava Rivers. This strategically important site has been settled since the late Stone Age by a succession of groups, from the Celts to the Romans, the Goths to the Lombards, and many more. Devín is great place for walks, not only to the historical monuments on the site, but also into the superb countryside which surrounds it. enter of Bratislava, Devín Castle clings to the top of a steep limestone cliff 695 feet (212 m) above the confluence of the Danube and Morava. Due to its position overlooking .

Bratislava Old Town (Stare Mesto)

The Old Town is a part of the Slovak capital of Bratislava, which houses the historic city center, the Danube Riverbank and the Castle Hill. The city center is an urban conservation area. These are the most visited part of Bratislava

Slovak National Theatre

Bratislava's opera house – known officially as the historical building of the Slovak National Theatre – is a Neo-Renaissance-style building opened in 1886 as the City Theatre, according to the design of Viennese architects F. Fellner and H. Helmer.

Old Town Hall (Stara Radnica)

Old Town Hall (Slovak: Stará radnica) is a complex of buildings from the 14th century in the Old Town of Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. It is the oldest city hall in the country and it is one of the oldest stone buildings still standing in Bratislava, with the tower being built approximately in 1370.

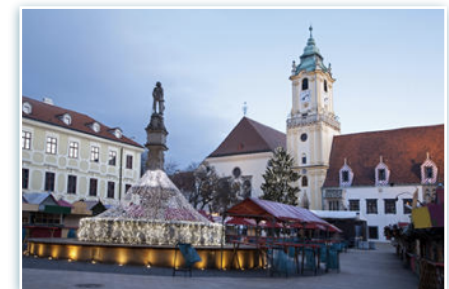

St. Martin's Cathedral (Dom svateho Martina)

The St Martin's Cathedral (Slovak: Katedrála svätého Martina) is a church in Bratislava, Slovakia, and the cathedral of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Bratislava. It is situated at the western border of the historical city center below Bratislava Castle. It is the largest and one of the oldest churches in Bratislava.

Franciscan Square

The Franciscan Square constitutes a kind of contrast to the lively Main Square. Visitors find here a substantially quieter, almost private place encircled by ancient historical buildings. Its name is derived from one of the oldest churches in Bratislava – the Franciscan Church with a monastery from the 13th century. Mirbach's Palace is an architectural landmark of the upper part of the Franciscan Square.

Grassalkovich Palace

This rococo summer palace was built in 1760 for the chairman of the Hungarian Royal Chamber and advisor to Empress Maria Theresa, Count Anton Grassalkovich. The sumptuous house was a sought-after venue for aristocratic society events. The palace is now the official residence of the President of the Slovak Republic.

Blue Church

The St. Elizabeth's church built in the Art Nouveau style at the beginning of the 20th century is remarkable for the blue color of its façade made with attention to detail with often use of mosaic. It is a popular place for weddings and baptisms.

Michael's Gate (Michalska brana)

The only preserved gate of the city fortification system dates back to the 14th century. The upper terrace of its 51-meter-high tower provides an enchanting view of the Bratislava Castle and the Old Town. The tower houses the Museum of Arms.

Primatial Palace (Primacialny Palac)

A Classicist palace built in the 18th century in which the Peace of Pressburg was signed after Napoleon's victory at the Battle of Austerlitz between the representatives of the French and Austrian emperors. The Palace houses a gallery depositing a unique collection of six English tapestries from the 17th century and also serves as the seat of the Mayor of Bratislava.
