WELCOME BACK TO PUNE,

Dear WAKO ASIA Friends,

As Vice President of WAKO (IF) and President of WAKO ASIAN Kickboxing Federation, on behalf of my colleagues in WAKO ASIAN Board of Directors, I am very pleased to officially invite you all to attend WAKO ASIAN Championships 2014/2015, which will be held in the city of Pune (India) from 1st to 9th August 2015.

After long hesitation, we have adopted once again for the city of Pune not only because of the great experience we had in 2012 but because of the geographic situation and easy access for many countries in Asia which allow our members to reach the event easier with the lowest travel cost.

Also, there are other good reasons to go to India. In fact, the WAKO Asian Championships 2014/2015 in PUNE will also serve as stage 1 of qualification for the Asian Athletes in specific weight categories participating in specific styles which will be selected for the next edition of Sportaccord World Combat Games 2017 and IWGA World Games 2017 to be held under the patronage of the International Olympic Committee. The participants and the winners of gold, silver and bronze medalists of the selected weight classes will cumulate the points for the qualification, which will be added to the points they will obtain during the 2016 WAKO ASIAN Championships.

We will have few fighting areas in the sport hall, which is quite big. The reason is that we would like to have enough time to run all styles and to allow you to go for a sightseeing tour in the largest country in the world and the second-most populated with over 1.2 billion people or just relaxing at your hotel and in the city.

Our best WAKO ASIA referees and judges will run the tournaments and we are sure the competitions will be smooth and enjoyable.

For all WAKO Asian delegation presidents, officials, leaders, we will also provide, within the sport hall, a VIP area where to relax during competitions and taste some snacks and soft beverages.

I am sure that Pune will stay in your mind for a long time. WAKO Asia & WAKO India are working hard to make your stay memorable.

Looking forward to see you soon in Pune!

With the best regards,

Tourist Attraction: PUNE

The Aga Khan's Palace: This Palace boasts of Italianate arches, a gracious building having salons and suites and spacious lawns. The place has a historical landmark. During the 1942 Quit India Movement, the Britishers interned Mahatma Gandhi and his wife Kasturba Gandhi here.

Osho Commune: Pune has become an international tourist spot because of the Osho Commune International. Spread over 31 acres of lush green surroundings, it is the meditation resort to people from over 60-70 different countries.

Raja Dinkar Kelkar Museum: The museum is housed in a Rajasthani styled building situated close to the hustle and bustle of the busy Bajirao Road of Pune. 'Mastani Mahal' which was brought and erected as it was from its original form is a masterpiece amongst its other exhibits. It has 36 sections which include carved palace and temple doors, 2,000 year old pottery, traditional Indian lamps and 17th century paintings.

University Of Poona: The site of Poona University, stately mansions at Ganeshkhind built in Italian-Gothic style, was the official residence of the Governor of Mumbai during the monsoon season. The 300 mt high tower beckons to all these who come here in the pursuit of higher education.

Film and Television Institute of India: The FTII is situated on a sprawling campus midst much greenery on the Law College Road. It is a premier institute that imparts training in all branches of the film industry and is known for having produced some of the finest professionals in the Audio- Visual media, most of whom have won accolades abroad. So if you have star in your eyes, FTII is a must.

Shaniwar Wada: This imposing palace was built by the successors of Shivaji, the Peshwas in 1736. A massive fire destroyed the building in 1827. Most of the palace interiors also got destroyed and all that remains is the old fortified wall. But of course the impressive brass studded gates and lotus pools have also withstood the ravages of time.

Sinhagad: Sinhagad stands 25 kms from Pune, formerly known as Kondhana, once being the most impregnable fort in western India. Its literal translation is the "Fortress of the Lion". The fort has changed hands many times from Mohammed Tughlak in 1340 A.D., to the British in 1918 A.D. The main attraction is climbing the fort on foot.

Lonavla & Khandala: Very popular hill stations, known for their resplendent green beauty during rains, these twin hill stations offer romantic hills, small waterfalls and the works... A place very easily reachable by train or by road, 70 km from Pune, it's just about an hour-and-a-half long drive in between Pune & Mumbai.

Mahabaleshwar: The summer capital of the Bombay presidency, the little town of Mahabaleshwar, situated 1372 ft above sea level, was founded in 1828 and is the highest point in the Western Ghats. A typical colonial town, in spirit closer to Blighty than Maratha land, with plenty of bridle paths, boating and golf facilities, fishing spots and trekking trails. The town is full of lookout points (Bombay Point, Elphinstone Point, Babington Point, Kate's Point) that provide fetching views of the plains and the sea hundreds of feet below.

Tourist Attraction: INDIA

NEW DELHI

Humayun's Tomb: This magnificent garden tomb is the first substantial example of Mughal architecture in India. It was built in 1565 A.D. nine years after the death of Humayun, by his senior widow Bega Begam. Inside the walled enclosure the most notable features are the garden squares (chaharbagh) with pathways water channels, centrally located well proportional mausoleum topped by double dome.

India Gate: An "Arc-de-Triomphe" like archway in the middle of a crossroad. Almost similar to its French counterpart, it commemorates the 70,000 Indian soldiers who lost their lives fighting for the British Army during the World War I. The memorial bears the names of more than 13,516 British and Indian soldiers killed in the Northwestern Frontier in the Afghan war of 1919.

Qutab Minar: It is built in 1193 by Qutab-ud-din Aibak immediately after the defeat of Delhi's last Hindu kingdom. The tower has five distinct storeys, each marked by a projecting balcony and tapers from a 15 m diameter at the base to just 2.5 m at the top. The first three storeys are made of red sandstone; the fourth and fifth storeys are of marble and sandstone. At the foot of the tower is the Quwwat-ul-Islam Mosque, the first mosque to be built in India.

Red Fort: The Red sandstone walls of the massive Red Fort (Lal Qila) rise 33-m above the clamour of Old Delhi as a reminder of the magnificent power and pomp of the Mughal emperors. The walls, built in 1638, were designed to keep out invaders, now they mainly keep out the noise and confusion of the city.

JAIPUR

Hawa Mahal: Built in 1799, by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh, is the most recognizable monument of Jaipur. The 5 storied stunning semi-octagonal monument having 152 windows with over hanging latticed balconies is a fine piece of Rajput architecture. Originally designed for the royal ladies to watch and enjoy the processions and other activities, on the street below. Now it houses a well laid out museum. The display "Jaipur past and present" is the special feature of this newly setup museum.

Jantar Mantar (Observatory): Built in 18th century by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the huge masonry instruments were used to study the movement of constellations and stars in the sky. Enormous sun-dial still provides accurate times, which are subject to daily corrections.

City Palace & S.M.S II Museum: Situated in the heart of the old City, it occupies about one seventh of the old city area. The palace is a blend of Rajput and Mughal architecture; it houses a Seven storeyed Chandra Mahal in the centre, which affords a fine view of the gardens and the city. Diwan-E-Am (Hall of public audience) has intricate decorations and collection of manuscripts, Diwan-E-Khas (Hall of private audience) has a marble paved gallery Mubarak Mahal has a rich collection of costumes and textiles. There is a Clock Tower near Mubarak Mahal. Sileh Khana has a collection of armory and weapons.

Jal Mahal: (6 kms) on the way to Amer, this small palace is set in the middle of Man agar Lake. Renovation around the lake is in progress.

Amer: The old capital of the Kachhwahas stands atop a range of craggy hills. The fort is remarkable as much for the majestic grandeur of its surroundings as for its sturdy battlements and beautiful palaces. It is a fine blend of Hindu and Muslim architecture. The solemn dignity of its red sandstone and white marble pavilions, when reflected in the lake at the foot hill, is a sight to behold.

AGRA

Taj Mahal: Is a white marble mausoleum located in Agra, Uttar Pradesh, India. It was built by Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his third wife, Mumtaz Mahal. The Taj Mahal is widely recognized as "the jewel of Muslim art in India and one of the universally admired masterpieces of the world's heritage".

MUMBAI

Juhu Beach: Juhu Beach: Juhu is the best place to bring the entire community (Mumbaikars - residents of Mumbai) on common social grounds and much interaction takes place amidst the natural ambience provided by the beach. Children, adults and aged, locals and tourists all make up the population that inhabits the beach especially on weekends.

Marine Drive: Built on land reclaimed from Back Bay in 1920, Marine Drive runs along the shoreline of the Arabian Sea from Nariman Point past Chowpatty Beach to the foot of Malabar Hill. It's one of Mumbai's most popular promenades and a favourite sunset-watching spot. You certainly won't be loitering on the sea wall long before you're engaged in conversation, even if it's with someone offering to show you how well their monkey can breakdance.

Elephanta Caves: A pleasant half an hour motor-boat ride from the hustle and bustle of city life brings one to the vicinities of the famous Elephanta caves located in the quiet island by the same name. This island is home to a series of seven magnificent rock cut caves which dates from the 4th-9th centuries A.D. These caves are situated at a height of about 76metres above sea-level.

Mani Bhavan: Is the old Mumbai residence of Mahatma Gandhi. It's a pretty, two-storied structure that now houses a reference library with over 2000 books, a photo exhibition of the Mahatma's life, and well preserved memorabilia, including an old charkha or spinning wheel that Gandhiji used to use. Today, its only a symbolic exhibit that lies unused, but many old Gandhians still visit the place to pay homage to their hero and demonstrate the noble art of spinning your own yarn!

Gateway of India: It is only extra-ordinary things that excite human beings but Gateway of India not only excites but also astounds the most discerning eye. The most famous monument, it is an architectural marvel that scores over other buildings in Mumbai. Having advantages of both location and architectural construction, it shines every morning with morning sun of Mumbai. There is something magical about Gateway of India that attracts tourists in hordes. Words fail to describe and picture postcards fail to capture the exact beauty of the monument.

The hosts of the 2014/2015 PUNE, WAKO ASIAN KICKBOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS greatly appreciate your interest, presence and co-operation in making this event a successful and meaningful experience for all participants involved. ### STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

I recognize my responsibility for the entire behavior of the athletes on my team throughout their participation in the WAKO ASIAN KICKBOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS 2014/2015, Pune. These responsibilities begin at the time of their first arrival and conclude after their final departure from the Tournament, Tournament Site or other Site which might be related to their participation in this event. This includes complete supervision while athletes are in their respective competition for the purpose of these Championships. I also recognize that discipline problems arise in the late evening after the conclusion of the competition, in the form of not obeying the quiet hours between 11 PM and 5:30 AM, and especially on the last night of competition. I also recognize that the host committee, the Tournament Director, and the Staff at each competitive site will be available to help control discipline problems and make the Tournament enjoyable for all.
